

The Howling Blue Eagle Tribe

Oh Eagles!

Breathe the Amazon air.

The lungs of the world are our lungs.

Let this finest of fuels open our eagle eyes to all the worlds.

See energies. See dreams. See intentions. See intuitions.

All alive in our eyes.

Oh Blue Eagles!

Have no fear to show your iridescence.

The world will not eat you.

You will bring the world to life.

Our beauty not only destroys fear, but nurtures limitless love and interconnected caring.

Oh Howling Blue Eagles!

Let loose the lion roar of your spirit.

The world needs to be awakened.

Let go of our domesticated habits of life and mind.

The wild in us is very much alive and fully connected to all the worlds.

Live transcendent. Live free!

Oh howling blue eagles!
